

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S YEAR

A series of events at
DOUGLAS COLLEGE

---

November 20th to 29th, 1975

MAKE IT HAPPEN

1975 was designated as International Women's Year to focus attention on the needs and potential of women around the world. The year is coming to an end. The problems which the year brought to our attention, however, remain.

As its contribution to I.W.Y., Douglas College is holding a series of events with the theme of Making Social Change Effective. If I.W.Y. is to be more than lip-service, attention has to be translated into action.

We hope that these events will be occasions for finding new ways of thinking, acting and doing. Social Change means MAKING IT HAPPEN . . . . with a little help from ourselves.

WHAT IS A LIBERATED MAN?

An evening panel and discussion

The women's movement in raising questions about sex-role definitions, is having a growing effect on men. Many men in their day-to-day lives are questioning the whole concept of "masculinity" and its limiting effects; they are seeking different ways of being husband, father, lover, and provider; they are concerned about new working relations with women on the job.

Four men who have thought about these and other issues, will share their personal spaces with each other and the audience. It is hoped the audience will raise questions of concern to them.

The panelists will be DR. MARVIN LAZERSON, Faculty of Education, U.B.C., DR. LEN MILLIS, Biologist, Douglas College, DR. JIM DAVIES, Philosophy, Douglas College. The chairman will be MR. ALAN WOODLAND, Chief Librarian, New Westminster Public Library.

* * *

"It is therefore not perceived so exclusively as a woman's problem in which men might "help" but as a two-sex problem in which women and men can learn from each other".

- Warren Farrell,
The Liberated Man.

WOMANSKILL SCHOOL

Taking the Mystique out of Mechanics
2 One-day Workshops

Do you get frustrated when you have a flat tire and have to call someone to fix it? Would you like to use media equipment for a meeting you are organizing, or a term project you are doing at school, but don't know how? These two workshops will allow women to learn more about mechanical equipment by actually using it under the guidance of qualified women instructors. The workshops are introductory so beginners are welcome. Limited enrolment in both.

CAR CLINIC

Basic maintenance of your car such as tire change and rotation, the filter, changing the oil, doing your own lube job etc. Bring your own car or you can work on somebody else's.

Instructor: Jane Perks, and members of Mom's Garage

NOTE: Pre-registration is essential. Detailed instructions will be mailed to all registrants.

AUDIO-VISUAL WORKSHOP

This workshop will familiarize you with such equipment as film projectors, tape recorders, mikes, slide/sound and video. The equipment to work with will be provided.

Instructor: Roberta Kalargirou, media producer and resource persons from the Audio-Visual Library, Douglas College.

TWO GENERATIONS IN CHANGE

A Workshop for Mothers and Daughters

The feminist movement challenges us to re-think traditional ways of behaving and acting in family life situations. What does the idea of sisterhood mean to mothers and daughters? Do daughters have to be "adult" before their ideas and needs can be accepted? What are the responsibilities and "rights" of mothers? This workshop will be an opportunity for mothers and daughters to talk about changing social values.

In the Chair: Bonnie McGhie, Counsellor, Douglas College

10:00 a.m. Coffee and Welcome

10:30 a.m. DIALOGUE

to
12 noon A mother with a successful career and a daughter who is equally successful will share the experiences they have had growing together in a changing world. BETSY McDONALD is Co-ordinator of the Employment Orientation for Women Program at Vancouver Community College and her daughter VAL DAVISON is a Counsellor at Len Sheppard Junior Secondary School. Following their dialogue they will interact with the audience.

12:00 Lunch - please bring a bag lunch, coffee will be available.

1:00 p.m. MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS ON THE MOVE

A working mother, a mother living in a communal environment, a mother who has returned to school and a mother at home will exchange views with their daughters about the effects of change on their roles.

NON-TRADITIONAL CAREERS FOR WOMEN

or, "You're a WHAT . . . . . ?"

If you could be anything in the world you wanted to, what would it be? New fields of work are opening up to women and many are working at jobs not usually done by women. If you want to find out about the changing world of women's work, here is a practical opportunity to talk to women who are working in non-traditional careers such as a notary public, jeweller, meter reader, policewoman, architect, apprentice gardener, chiropractor and others.

9:30 a.m. Coffee and Welcome

10:00 a.m. FOUR GROUP SESSIONS:
to
2:00 p.m. PROFESSIONAL OCCUPATIONS
MECHANICAL AND PHYSICAL OCCUPATIONS
BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT
CAREER FILMS "WOMEN AT WORK"

Representatives from these areas of work will talk about their jobs and answer questions. Groups are structured so that participants can attend any or all four.

2:30 p.m. WAYS TO MAKE IT HAPPEN; a discussion

"Apprenticeship Opportunities for Women"	Christine Waddell, Women's Employment Bureau Department of Labour
"Equal Opportunities for Women"	Jo Mitchell, Canada Manpower
"Women and Human Rights"	Shelagh Day, Human Rights Division Department of Labour
